Katrina,
Per our phone call this morning, while it is disappointing that your department has demonstrated an obstinate refusal to review the information submitted in my complaint or conduct any basic due diligence, evidenced by a rapid and knee-jerk response that clearly demonstrated a lack of understanding of the nature and content of the complaint, I will be including the attached document in the materials I submit to state and federal regulatory oversight bodies to ensure transparency and prevent any surprises as I continue to seek resolution of this matter.

Please understand that after enduring many years of obsessive, unyielding, and unabated harassment, civil rights violations, and strategic litigation against public participation, it is imperative that these individuals and law enforcement agencies be held professionally and criminally accountable. As such I have no choice but to do everything possible in seeking legal redress and a level of safety and protection that the law is intended to provide.

This communication constitutes my final official response.

Sincerely,
Elvis Nuno

I have been very polite and patient in trying to work with your department.

If the only problem is that I need to re-submit a re-worded complaint that emphasizes what the issue is not: "an isolated incident involving a few civil rights violations that happened to me, and only me, a few years ago,"

What the issue is: "a series of events that began years ago, triggered by a formal complaint submitted by mail in the form of a polite letter and $400 donation, that resulted in years of extreme legal escalation, shockingly flagrant civil rights violations, and malicious harassment that continues to present day... and most notably this is an established pattern of nearly identical incidents spanning well over a decade of (re)victimizing a wide cross-section of individuals."

For the sake of ensuring there is no confusion of the purview and content of my formal complaint I have attached what is closer to an editorial article than a technical legal analysis.

If I do not receive a prompt response: I will consider the matter (prematurely) closed, document the refusal to even attempt a review of the matter (much less any actual investigation), and will have to widen the audience in seeking assistance from to ensure the safety of myself, my family, and the community of Missoula in general.

Thank you in advance for your time and serious consideration of this matter that desperately requires urgent and immediate attention.

Sincerely,

Elvis Nuno

If this matter is deemed closed without any prospect of a serious investigation, as communicated less than 24 hours after the complaint's submission, I would appreciate it if you could provide me with this information. This will enable me to explore alternative avenues for institutional accountability.

Sincerely,

Elvis Nuno

This dossier, which has taken hundreds of hours to compile, should be fully utilized as a foundation for a far more thorough and exhaustive investigation than what public citizens are capable of undertaking: https://grey-slipper-363.notion.site/02fa6619890448408af402796e5a1f63?v=238ca07db84980ffbb25000c8597ce62 [grey-slipper-363.notion.site] such nothing should be summarily disregarded without first examining each event in the greater context of what is ostensibly a single ongoing matter.

Furthermore my official complaint should not be dismissed as an isolated incident, nor my case considered a conspiracy against me. Instead, it should be recognized as an established pattern of conduct that extends beyond my case and represents a deeper problem involving a lack of transparency, accountability, and deficient inter-agency checks. Furthermore, the absence of independent review boards is a significant concern.

As an individual who has endured numerous unlawful arrests, SWATting incidents, near-fatal police encounters, home raids, and an obsessive degree of malicious harassment that has persisted for over a decade without any signs of abatement, I firmly believe that this matter must be addressed. I will not allow this situation to continue without holding those responsible accountable for their actions.

This long overdue accountability can either commence with your department, the Montana Public Safety Officer Standards & Training Council, as per its stated mission and responsibilities. Alternatively, it can be deferred to another regulatory body or legal organization. However, I strongly urge your department to take this matter seriously and conduct a thorough investigation with the utmost diligence. The significance of this case in relation to the high standards of fairness and justice that Montana's law enforcement agencies and victim advocacy institutions should uphold necessitates such a comprehensive approach.

Sincerely,

Elvis Nuno

These are very serious on-going issues that have been allowed to continue unabated, and facilitate serious civil rights violations and abuse of power without any concern of being held accountable for their actions.

Please provide me with the proper contact information for the organization inside the MT DoJ that actually governs MPD operational standards and practices.

Thank you in advance for you assistance in addressing these current and extremely serious organizational issues that stand in direct opposition to the stated mission of upholding constitutional standards and practices.

Mr. Nuno,

Director Allred has reviewed your complaint information. The majority of the issues that you have outlined are not within POST's purview. Additionally, except in very limited circumstances, POST does not investigate allegations that are over 5 years old, based on policy and procedures adopted by the Council.

Dear Montana Department of Justice Investigations Bureau,

I am writing to formally request that your office initiate a thorough investigation into ongoing police misconduct, coordinated harassment, and civil rights violations I have endured across multiple jurisdictions, including Missoula County. My name is Elvis R. Nuno, and over the past 11 years, I have been subjected to repeated wrongful arrests, false or conflicting police reports, excessive bail, and professional and personal retaliation as a result of coordinated actions by local law enforcement, nonprofit organizations, and certain prosecutorial offices in Montana and Washington State.

Despite multiple official complaints, these violations have persisted, and have included:

- Fabricated or misleading police documentation to justify detainment and restraining orders.
- Retaliation after I attempted to assert my rights or expose misconduct, resulting in professional harm and further targeting.
- Apparent coordination between agencies and nonprofit groups enabling serial arrests without independent or thorough investigation.
- Compounded harm as a result of legal malpractice from several defense attorneys.

I have attached/electronically submitted a range of supporting case documents, including police reports, complaint filings with the Office of Professional Accountability, court orders, and expert legal analyses confirming constitutional violations. My experience is not isolated, and I am deeply concerned that similar abuses may be occurring to others in our state who lack the resources or visibility to fight back.

I respectfully ask that the Investigations Bureau take up this case, independently review my evidence, and take appropriate action to ensure accountability and meaningful reform. Please let me know if additional documentation or interviews are required—I am prepared to fully cooperate.

All information can be found at the following website: https://grey-slipper-363.notion.site/02fa6619890448408af402796e5a1f63?v=238ca07db84980ffbb25000c8597ce62 [grey-slipper-363.notion.site]

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter. I look forward to your reply and am available by phone or e-mail at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Elvis R. Nuno
