15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:
[D. Chard and E. Nuno have known each other since High School, when the dated briefly.

Their relationship ended and they pursued independent careers. Both lived in Alaska, but not together. D. Chard stated she attempted to obtain a court order to dissuade contact between the two, in Alaska but since they had different residences and were not involved, the courts denied the order.

She has not seen E. Nuno since May of this year. She stated he continued to call and message her. She blocked him to avoid receiving calls and messages.

She stated E. Nuno is a computer IT person whom works in the Pioneer Square area. His exact work description and address are unknown. D. Chard allowed me to review numerous text messages from E. Nuno. All the messages she received were from different/unknown numbers. She believes he knows how to bypass the security block on her I-Phone.

None of the messages she provided contain direct threats. They are disturbing to her. The suspect scares her and makes her feel unsafe, believing he is capable to doing her harm.

Using her telephone I contacted the suspect and advised him to avoid all contact with her. Through all means, except the legal system. He briefly claimed she owned him money. He would not elaborate on the claim. I advised him to obtain a lawyer. The suspect then disconnected the phone. On call back to him I advised him this Police report number. I also advised him to stop contacting her.

I provided the victim a business card with incident number. I advised her to obtain, today, a court order at the King County Courthouse, which was block away from the location where I interviewed her.

12A.06.040 - Harassment

A person is guilty of harassment if:

1.

With the intent to annoy or alarm another person he/she repeatedly uses fighting words or obscene language, thereby creating a substantial risk of assault; or 2.

Without lawful authority, the person knowingly threatens:

a.

To cause bodily injury immediately or in the future to the person threatened or to any other person, or b.

To cause physical damage to the property of a person other than the actor, or c.

To subject the person threatened or any other person to physical confinement or restraint, or d.

Maliciously to do any other act which is intended to substantially harm the person threatened or another with respect to his or her physical or mental health or safety, and e.

The person by words or conduct places the person threatened in reasonable fear that the threat will be carried out.

I hereby declare (certify) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that this report is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief (RCW 9A.72.085)

15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:
[On Friday, December 11, 2015 at 1713 hours, Officer Johnson #7754 and I responded to in reference to harassment. Upon our arrival, we met with the complainant/victim, Danielle Chard. Ms. Chard stated her ex-boyfriend/suspect, Elvis Nuno has been threatening and harassing her. She has known Mr. Nuno since they met in a high school she attended in Montana. She stated she dated Mr. Nuno for approximately two months and had remained on and off contact with him throughout the 16 years of them knowing one another.

Mr. Nuno started reconnecting with her about ten years ago. He would befriend her Facebook friends after he made a Facebook page falsely stating he was in a romantic relationship with Ms. Chard. He is a very advance information technology guy and was able to create photo shopped pictures portraying him and Ms. Chard in Montana, married and living together. Ms. Chard stated Mr. Nuno has become more delusional over the years. He was very good at concealing his behavior in public, but it has since declined greatly and he is unable to control himself. He also changes behavior from calm to ranging often.

Per Ms. Chard, Nuno has been calling and texting her a lot. She has made several police report over the past week with both Seattle Police Department and Edmonds Police Department; the Seattle Police report number is 2015-421345. The first incident was him threatening to harm her friends and family because he believed they were keeping her away from him. Per Ms. Chard he does not accept that she does not want to engage or be in a relationship with him. Ms. Chard stated before this all started he did not know where she lived or worked. Last night he sent her a text with her address and told her he knows where she lives. She was very afraid he would show up to her home, because she said he is a registered gun owner and owns firearms; He did not threaten to use a firearm against her.

This morning, December 11, 2015, Mr. Nuno left a message on her personal work phone number via her work extension. He said he wanted to make a complaint to a supervisor about an employee impersonating a law enforcement officer. She was very concerned because she never told him where she worked. Per Ms. Chard, both Seattle and Edmonds Police attempted to make contact with Mr. Nuno via phone. She stated she obtained a restraining order on Monday, December 7, 2015 because of the numerous phone calls, threats and text messages left on her phone by Mr. Nuno. Judge Henry Judson issued a restraining order under #15-2-29663-9SEA. The order is not in NCIC and it is unknown if any attempt has been made to serve Mr. Nuno. Per Ms. Chard, responding officers has spoken with Mr. Nuno after she obtained the restraining order and notified him he is not to make any contact at with her due to the court order. The court hearing on the order is set for December 21, 2015.

Ms. Chard seemed very concerned for her safety. She stated Mr. Nuno is a drug and alcohol abuser. He has never physically harmed her, but he does make threats and is becoming more aggressive in his behavior. She does not known if he is diagnosed with any mental illness, but stated he does present behavior of mental instability.

Ms. Chard takes the bus from work to the station in Edmonds where she then drives home. The only means she has to protect herself is pepper spray. She does not have any guard dogs, alarm systems or other people residing with her. I informed her she can alert Edmonds Police of the growing stalking behavior to see if they are available to perform any extra patrols in her apartment community.
