Hi Arianna,

Here is an email to the YWCA, about me, on Elvis' behalf. Not sure if you want this, since it's purportedly not from Elvis, but I figured I'd send it anyway.

Thank you,
E'Lise

To whom it may concern,

I am aware of the harassment and trouble that your employee E'lise Chard has been causing my good friend Elvis Nuno and his family. Because of this, I felt compelled to share a little bit about the type of person Elvis is, and how much he helped me out in a time of need.

Two years ago, I was introduced to Elvis through a mutual friend, at the time I was pregnant, homeless, and living on the streets. When Elvis found out that I had no where to go he invited me into his home and let me stay there at no cost. He expected nothing in return, he just wanted to make sure that I had a safe place to stay. He helped me out when nobody, not even my family, would. Elvis had just met me and he welcomed me in without hesitation. He was supportive and kind to me and helped me more than I can put into words.

During the time I've known Elvis, I've seen him help many others, just like me. People that had nowhere else to go. People who needed a supportive friend to actually care about them and their wellbeing.

During the whole time that I stayed with Elvis he was nothing but kind hearted, generous, patient, and most of all respectful. He was never physically or verbally abusive towards anyone. At times of conflict, he handled himself very well, and would work through the issue, instead of making things worse.

Elvis has been such a great friend to me since the day I met him and I hate what your employee E'lise Chard has been doing to him for no reason at all. He definitely doesn't deserve anything she has done, and continues to do and the chaos she has created for him and his family.

I think it would be in your best interest to address this issue and to see what is really going on.

Thank you for your time,

Sincerely,
